Important News & Notes:

Support for a Worthy Cause

Please consider supporting the cause of one of our very own 4th-grade students at Slade! She is fundraising for Project Linus; a program that relies on volunteers to make blankets for children aged 0 to 18 who are seriously ill, traumatized, or otherwise in need. The blankets are distributed to the NICUs and PICUs of local hospitals and the food bank for the baby pantries.

On October 30th, a fundraiser will be held at Peace A Pizza from 3 pm to 7 pm. Premium salads and pizzas are available for pick up, dine-in, or curbside. The address is 15 Mellor Avenue Catonsville MD 21228, with the telephone number 410-747-2255. We hope to see you there!

Individual Student Photos — Make up Day

If your student missed having their individual photo taken in September, Galeone Photographers will be at school taking photos and orders on Tuesday, 10/29/24. Please use the order form found at the end of this newsletter.

Special Celebration

This year our Slade family is coming together to construct an ofrenda celebrating the Day of the Dead. The Day of the Dead is a special celebration in Mexico and several other Spanish speaking countries held on November 1st and 2nd, when the souls of ancestors are welcomed back to homes for a day of remembrance. It is a holiday joining the Catholic celebration of All Souls Day and Ancient Aztec and Mayan customs for honoring their ancestors. In Mexico, families decorate grave sites and set up ofrendas/altars in their homes to honor the deceased. Ofrendas are typically decorated with religious pictures and crosses, candles, favorite foods of the deceased, items that were cherished by the departed, salt and water, photos of those who have died and decorative skulls and skeleton decorations.

Please note:

The November 2024 School Calendar and Lunch Menu are the final two pages of this week's newsletter.

This year, our Slade families are invited to send in a photocopied picture (please do not send in an original photo) of a loved one who has passed to display on our school-wide ofrenda. The ofrenda will be displayed in the vestibule outside of the administrative offices. It will be decorated with religious pictures and symbols, candles, marigold flowers and decorations to honor our ancestors. Our students in 4th through 8th grades will also be adding crafts made in Spanish class to the ofrenda.

Please consider contributing to our ofrenda. Your child may bring in a photo on Monday, October 28 and Tuesday, October 29. Photos will be collected by homeroom teachers and delivered to Sra. Bozek for display until Monday November 4, 2024.
